Pastor's Message

By Father David Fox

Dear Friends,

How do I know its love?

(Answer: See St. Paul's letter below)

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give away all I have, and if I deliver my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind; love is not jealous or boastful; it is not arrogant or rude. Love does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrong, but rejoices in the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends.

As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. For our knowledge is imperfect and our prophecy is imperfect; but when the perfect comes, the imperfect will pass away. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became a man, I gave up childish ways.

For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall fully understand, even as I have been fully understood. So faith, hope, love abide, these three, but the greatest of these is love.

Questions: How does the above speak to us about the task of Christian education in our parish? About the way we treat others? About the way we understand how people treat us? About what I am preoccupied with in my life?

Pray for me. Your friend,

By Bill Peters

I am honored to have been elected as the new Parish Council President for the next year.

As you know The St. Nicholas Parish is very active and has many spiritual, social and fund raising activities throughout the year. Even though we are a small community there is always much to be done. Recent examples include the many events of Pascha, Adult Education, the Annual Parish Meeting with

Council Member elections, the care and maintenance of the Church building and grounds, the Spring Dance, Mothers' Day Festivities, the Bishop's Visit and the Annual Picnic with the Raffle of a 40" LCD TV.

I encourage each of you with your families to participate in the life of the church. You will find it personally rewarding.

I look forward to a successful Church year and of working with you all.

This Month's Major Feast Days

Holy Apostles Saint Peter and Saint Paul – June 29

Sermon of Saint Augustine, Bishop of Hippo (Edited):

Today the Holy Church piously remembers the sufferings of the Holy Glorious and All-Praised Apostles Peter and Paul. St. Peter, the fervent follower of Jesus Christ, for the profound confession of His Divinity: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God," was deemed worthy by the Savior to hear in answer, "Blessed art thou, Simon ... I tell thee, that thou art Peter [Petrus], and on this stone [petra] I build My Church" (Mt.16:16-18). On "this stone" [petra], is on that which thou sayest: "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God" it is on this thy confession I build My Church. Our Lord Jesus Christ, in the final days of His earthly life, chose from among the disciples His twelve Apostles to preach the Word of God. Among them, the Apostle Peter for his fiery ardor was vouchsafed to occupy the first place (Mt.10:2) and to be as it were the representative person for all the Church. After His Resurrection the Lord entrusted the Apostle Peter to shepherd His spiritual flock, Christ addresses Himself chiefly to Peter because Peter was first among the Apostles and as such the representative of the Church; besides which, having turned in this instance to Peter alone, as to the top Apostle, Christ by this confirms the unity of the Church.

The Apostle Paul, formerly Saul, was changed from a robbing wolf into a meek lamb. Formerly he was an enemy of the Church, then, is manifest as an Apostle. Having received from the high priests the authority at large to throw all Christians in chains for execution, he was already on the way, he breathed out "threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, he thirsted for blood. He came near Damascus, and the Lord from Heaven called to him: "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou Me?" Saul, however, "trembling and frightened", cried out: "Who art Thou, Lord?" The Lord answered him, "I am Jesus Whom thou persecutest." And Saul suddenly undergoes a change: "What warest Thou me to do?" -- he cries out. And suddenly for him there is the Voice: "Arise, and go to the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do". Here the Lord sends Ananias: "Arise and go into the street" to a man, "by the name of Saul," and baptize him, "for this one is a chosen vessel unto Me, to bear My name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel". And actually the Lord did show the Apostle Paul what things he had to suffer for His Name. He instructed him the deeds; He did not stop at the chains, the fetters, the prisons and shipwrecks; He Himself felt for him in his sufferings, He Himself guided him towards this day.

On a single day the memory of the sufferings of both these Apostles is celebrated, though they suffered on separate days, but by the spirit and the closeness of their suffering they constitute one. Peter went first, and Paul followed soon after him. And so, brethren, celebrating now the memory of the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, remembering their venerable sufferings, we esteem their true faith and holy life, we esteem the innocence of their sufferings and pure confession. Loving in them the sublime quality and imitating them by great exploits, "in which to be likened to them", and we shall attain to that eternal bliss which is prepared for all the saints.
